

When He is Come – Peace.

Psalms 85:2-13,

"Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah. Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger. Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease. Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations? Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee? Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation. I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak Peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly. Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase. Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps."

Genesis 2:9, "And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil."

Genesis 3:3-5, "But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in that day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil."

Genesis 3:24, "So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way (understanding) of the tree of life."

John 14:22-27, "Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled neither let it be afraid."

John 20:21-22, "Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:"

Acts 4:31-32, "And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness. And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common."

Acts 7:60, "And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep."

Acts 13:38-41, "Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you."

Acts 18:24-28, "And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus."

This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly. And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace: For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ."

Ephesians 2:14-15, "For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;"

Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Hebrews 7:2, "To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem (King of Peace), which is, King of peace;"

Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

John 16:8-13, "And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

Of sin, because they believe not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come."

Mark 5:18-21, "And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him."

Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel. And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea."

Acts 8:3, "As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison."

Mark 9:40-42, "For he that is not against us is on our part. For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward. And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea."

Ephesians 6:15, "And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of Peace;"

Hebrews 7:19, "For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God."

Revelation 12:10-11, "And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death."

Mark 8:34,

"And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."

"...Every one that is of the truth hears my voice."

HOPE

There is always a better hope on offer and hope leads us closer to God, and the revelations found in that better hope lead us on into faith, and faith, to the bringing into manifestation, the evidence of things not seen, and the substance of things hoped for. And if a faith, a faith unto who other than The Living God of All Creation, The Holy Spirit of God who promises to lead us all into all kindness and also into all truth, which is to say Love. Peace is the workings of Love resulting in Joy.

When He is Come – Peace.

The more I study scripture then the more I see a need for a renewing, a reformation, a revival, enlightenment, revelation, call it what you will, I see a need for a return to the sharing of the good news of Jesus' Kingdom of Peace, of His Kingdom come and of His will being done, to combat the fighting, the suicide, the inequality and pollution of our planet. I remain convinced Humanity is still hanging out in the wrong tree, just as my scripture suggestions in the very first book, in a book that some say is a manufacturer's manual and if we can't get past the first couple of chapters then how might we ever get to the last? The punitive side of the right / wrong system is not working for the world, and certainly it is brutally clear that it is not working for me either.

I believe in a better one, and so is it any wonder that I would want the same for others, even if, for no other reason than for my own personal protection, security and self-preservation. Stopping slavery and ending the death penalty all started somewhere and I believe the same for stopping the bully, for Peace, for mentoring rather than harmful punishment, and for overcoming violent behaviours within our communities, but not while violence continues to breed more violence and the violent continue to interpret respect in terms of cruelty and dominance rather than equality.

When He is

come we lose the need for the use of the Old Testament philosophy that says we learn obedience by the things that we suffer because He mentors us instead. There are two trees. One right wrong tree and a better tree. While hanging out in the right wrong tree we are prevented from seeing the better tree. We remain both tricked and blinded by the veil between the right/wrong tree and the better tree while Humanity remains captive of the old paradigm understanding of sin, righteousness and judgement, remaining unreprieved in all three of these arenas, firstly by denying the all-inclusive Blood-covering of Jesus Christ, secondly denying The Peace that Jesus left with us, for the Spirit has already come, and thirdly by denying the word of God and living by code to the traditions and mere doctrines of mere men, living life unto the death instead of life unto life, so loving the creature and mask or image more so and rather than loving our Creator and His will, for His thoughts are of Peace and Goodwill toward us.

Indeed, instead of and rather than living by virtue to faith in a spirit led conscience before God. How is it possible? That the modern day contemporary Christian conventions can believe in the concept of Holy Spirit Guidance and not see punishment toward others, since Christ, as an ungodly behaviour, indeed still not see punishment itself as being ungodly, particularly as Jesus died taking upon Himself the punishment of the world while taking up His cross for the individual, just as all Christians are also asked to do by scripture and well demonstrated in Stephen's behaviour when facing death. Are we not to take up the cross as well? Eat concrete, suck it up, so to speak in the modern tongue, and wear any undeserving consequence rather than become the consequence? All things are permissible but not all things are profitable. Actions do have consequence and response is different from intent. Learning obedience by the things that we suffer only brings more suffering into our world instead of joy and is violence breeding more violence, a short term easy answer to a complex long term problem. Surely we are to correct by example, offering hope, leaving the fearful brutal enforcement behind, and bring the joy of learning a better way into our world, rather than suffering more harm in the name of punishment and justice.

What ever happened to The Good News of Jesus' Kingdom of Peace and the equal opportunity world for all that it offers to all? Entry of the Holy Spirit into our world proves that now, since Christ, God inspirationally coaches/mentors rather than punishes, and Mankind would do well to turn and take up the same, leaving the law of the Jungle, Territorial Alpha Male Syndrome, and the beastly brute behind. Punishment brings suffering. Education brings Joy.

Lived experience teaches that a missed placed pride leads People down a path of "right only" thinking and a must be right at all of cost, even unto the death attitude which has a zeal, posse-style to find and punish wrong with its "Right! Let's go get them" sayings to justify their significance in being right, which enslaves the soul, by developing a righteousness founded on justice rather than grounded in faith and so, go around hunting wrong believing that they are doing God and community a favour in doing so, and when wrong can't be found their preferences turn into prejudice as they needle and provoke to lure out their own wrong in others, so they then can shout it out loud for all the world to hear, trying to modify other people's will and behaviour by pouring out shame all over the heads of others attempting to lure Better Opens Opportunity's Door.

Hope asks what's better? Faith says here's how. Will receives an option. Behaviour determined by belief. Action is a choice. Freedom is you get to choose.

BETTER

Wrong Right

Choosing Better is Choosing Wisely.

ALWAYS THERE IS BETTER

Better comes from God

God's Greatest Gift to us all.

Capacity for every individual to be guided through life by God Himself. To unwrap this most precious of all gifts ask God to be your conscience for you thus giving voice to God within your own brain. Your mentoring can replace your punishment leading by example instead. Learning obedience by the things that we suffer (punishment) opposes His Gift of Grace.

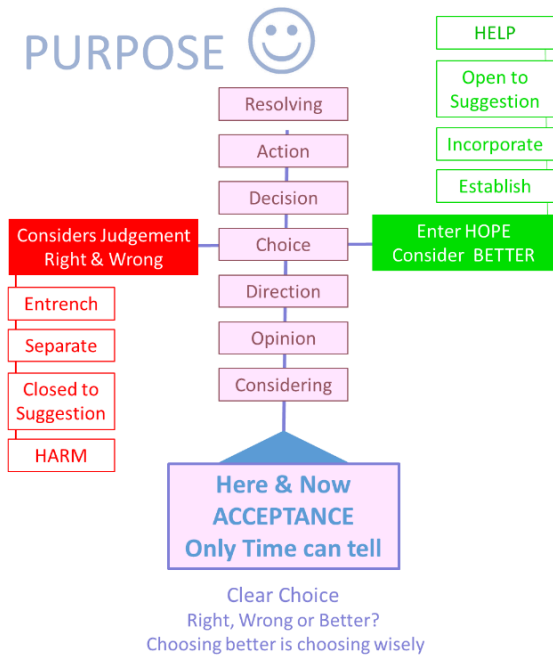

WISDOM DISTINCT FROM ARROGANCE

RESPONSE IS DIFFERENT TO INTENT

Response is often a knee-jerk reaction. Often a reflex action. Whereas intent is wilful, purposeful and premeditated. Often set to hinder or to harm instead of toward care and help. Often a weapon in the hands of revenge, punishment or cruelty. Often misguided by unseen double standards and hypocrisy rather than wilfully serving a love for Humanity, wilfully serving goodwill.

When He is Come – Peace.

A Process of Considerations Forward into a blame game. Always trying to instigate controversy knowing that right and wrong divide and therefore always on the lookout for the opportunity to conquer once divided. Constantly trying to lure others into the quagmire of fighting over right and wrong, and when this fails 'people of the we alone are right thinking' will often turn their prejudice to discrimination and start a war of attrition to victimise trying to invent a victim mentality or thinking in the victims they pursue by going on a campaign of vilification to stigmatise by demonizing or belittling ridicule, defaming and slandering with humiliating allegations, gossip-mongering, blame and accusation, all for suspicion arousal, all being part of an unrelenting persecution to enforce behaviour in others by trying to shame others into subjection and after that fails bullying prosecutions of intimidation for control and ownership over the will of others through fear, demanding an obedience by imposing a fear of loss, harm, psychological damage or physical violence to try to drag others into their sticky nets of manipulation. All very ugly controlling tyrannic stuff indeed and all currently on the rise again as smarty-pants, self-righteous attitudes, instead of truth, spring up all over the show robbing our world of hope by having an uninformed zeal, a bit like Saul's was to the early church before he was enlightened by better and became Paul.

And why, you may ask? Primarily because of the shame that comes with the punitive side of the right / wrong system of justice we all operate within when a better way is available instead. Because some People have not embraced their own shame and so have developed masks to cover it. Living their lives dictated to by their imagined image who have lost touch with their own authenticity, and have become completely bound to ego, self-interest/importance and greed. Indeed love their creature more so than their Creator, loving themselves more so than the world around them that made them. Having a misplaced pride in their own understanding and suffer a need for control and therefore like to dominate/manipulate other People and situations to hide their own deep seated insecurities of insignificance stemming from feelings surrounding peculiarities, imperfections and inadequacies in Body-beautiful, size or shape, belonging or ideology, cleverness or intellect or personality / spirit / psyche resonating from a damaged self-esteem expressing a fear in exposure of insincerity or non-authenticity or of having their personally covered imperfection revealed. Frightened of losing the mask developed as a perceived covering to imperfection, shortcomings, limitations, prejudice or greed which in turn brings about further actions to hide their shame rather than embracing their shame, and so develop further a fear of the unknown or anything different that maybe challenging to their own. Why? Greedily for dominance over the will or behaviour of others using an old paradigm of thinking, believing and putting faith in a philosophy that says that we learn obedience to law by the things that we suffer and so believing to have free licence to punish and believe that they do community a service bringing more suffering into our world rather than bringing the joy of learning a better way forward led by a caring example and inspirational coaching.

Why? Because of an arrogance brought about in a lack of empathy toward other People's circumstance and understanding or a deficiency in knowledge or experience. An ill-informed ignorance hiding behind the skirts of bravado, intimidation, physical violence and emotional bullying parading around and dressed up in a double standard hypocrisy lacking grace, dignity and an equality based respect for others. There are many forms of psychological terrorism that humanity bundles up together in the name of so-called justice and punishment and stigma is just one weapon in the arsenal of those that would endeavour to victimise and shame. Often the dominator will come as the shining light but more often than not turn out to be Smearers, Sin Hunters, Hope Robbers, Slate Carrying Groupies and moralistic Scalp Collecting Shamers all demonizing, stigmatizing and staining anything outside of their own co-dependently derived standards of what right is, accordingly to their own narrow viewpoint, captive to their own slate carrying cultural understandings and teachings of their own so called necessary burdens required to acquiring purity, perfection or the group standard to keep, misleadingly asserting a licence to punish anything outside of their own square boxes, having a righteousness based on justice rather than on faith, and forgetful that truth contains at least 3 sides, eg views of an incident, yours, mine and the actual.

When He is Come – Peace.

John 16:8-11,
"And when he is come,
he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

REPROVED?

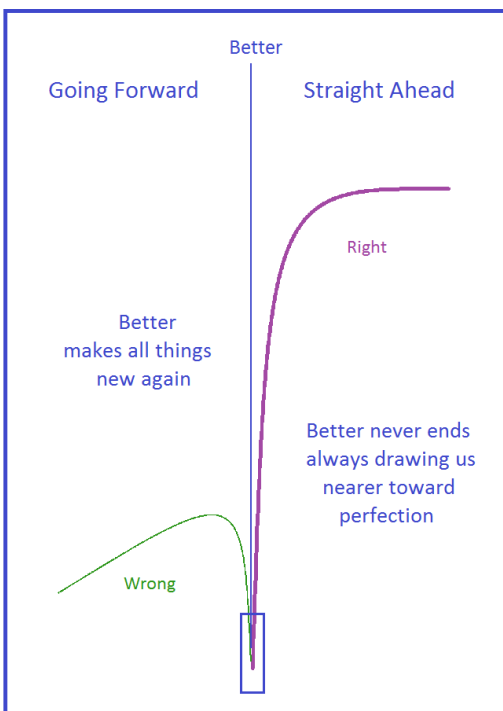

Of sin,
because they believe not on me;

Did the Blood of Jesus Christ cover all sin? Do we actually live in that blood Covering? Can we say that we have already been reprov'd of sin if we still see sin as sin, rather than seeing sin as forgiven? Is a sinner someone who sins or someone who still sees sin as sin? Maybe we have wiped our slates clean as did John the Baptist, for the remission of sin by will, but why the need of a slate when all is already forgiven and in Christ all already holy before God? Is this slate-cleansing merely a refreshing of the mind? A mere starting over in the old mindset or thinking/attitudes of having licence to punish wrong when right, while engaged on sin hunting expeditions, crusades of taking away the sins of the world and all for the glory of other men? Instead of a complete renewal of mind, thinking, attitude, and thus, the resulting born again behaviours of Grace and Truth, Peace and Goodwill, of Kingdom Come and Will being Done, Joy to our world instead of harm, of actually bringing Heaven to Earth living by faith instead of requirement? For what we believe to be true determines our behaviour and what many believe many we do. There is no slate in Christ. The slate is rolled away. There are no necessary burdens to achieving holy qualification before God, all is already forgiven, past, present and future. Surely when we still see sin as sin rather than seeing sin as forgiven, do we not also peel back the blood covering of Christ? We can learn how not to become offended equally as we can learn how not to offend. There is no sin in Christ.

Of righteousness,
because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

Peace I leave with you. It is already done and by Faith we maintain it having a better hope, we hold the line. Only God is right. Humanity gets the opportunity to do better. What kind of kingdom member doesn't know the name of his own kingdom? Or what sort of Countryman doesn't know the name of his own country? The Comforter has already come to guide us into all kindness and truth. Turning the old paradigm of a justice based righteousness into a righteousness grounded in faith toward the finished works of Jesus Christ, Peace, and an equal opportunity world for all, Hallelujah. Inspirational Coaching/Training by Example/Mentoring replaced punishment and thus brings the joy of learning into our world rather than adding more suffering by bringing more harm into our world. Is there anything that comes outside of the Golden Rule, empathy, in regards to human relationship? Sometimes we offer more grace to a washing machine on the blink than we do our fellow Human Beings, for we wouldn't whip/punish a fridge to improve its performance, so why do we still subscribe to the brutality of learning obedience by the things that we suffer rather than re-adjusting, re-educating or re-programming a learning of war no more. Jesus died the most violent death that we may live in Peace, together as one community. Peace is better than war. Our Mentoring can replace our punishment.

Of judgment,
because the prince of this world is judged.

All things are pure to the pure. All is Already Good. There is no bad. Simply ill-informed ignorance parading itself as arrogance and dressed up in double standard hypocrisy. We must be right before we will fight. Self-righteousness is the root cause of all violence because it closes the mind to empathy and only leads to selfish, self-centred greed, prejudice and a one-eyed misplaced pride. People of right-thinking need wrong to justify the existence of their often long held positions. So right and wrong divide, but better combines and makes all things new again bringing us closer to God and as we move closer to God so does God move closer to us, and so turning from the hope-robbing right/wrong creature, developed through having and trusting in a justice based righteousness, the vail will be taken away, and the better hope revealed. Better to stop hanging out in the tree of right wrong knowledge (devil's playground). Come out from living in the old paradigm land of right and wrong and enter into the New Covenant promised-land and paradigm of Better and dwell in His House of Hope, because better comes from God. Better never ends. So why judge right or wrong, when we all can simply be doing better, together? The Kingdom of Peace is within you.

Think Better Get Better

The Golden Rule Rules.

Rediscover Grace. Relationship is more precious than regulation and more powerful than any formula. Mentoring can replace punishment & help is better than harm. Example more worthy than coercion or learning obedience by the things that we suffer. Humanity has suffered enough. We can live by virtue having an integrity to conscience and be spirit-guided rather than burdened by having an integrity to script and guided by the letter of the law. Ask God to be your conscience for you. Faith is what you do with what you believe and what you believe will determine how you act. Behaviour is determined by belief and what many believe many will do. Hope asks what's better? Faith says here's how. Seek Peace in all that you do & be doing Peace (Goodwill) in all that you seek right and wrong divide while better combines so making Peace.

When He is Come – Peace.

And all of this experienced unnecessary Human discomfit and craziness all because of an old, pre-Jesus / pre-Holy Spirit's availability to all paradigm understanding of sin, righteousness and judgement, old perspectives on shame, limitation and imagined images or masks to cover it, tainting our contemporary views on body beautiful and self-importance, on our belonging and ego, and on our intellect and motivation, all the very things that go to make up our imagined identity in significance and so still we suffer at the hands of Judgementalism driving Escapism propelling the Conjecturalism that are now forming the very basis to a maddening world of consumerism powered by greed and its ugly manifestations in vanity, of manufactured celebrity, of power and of extreme, unnecessary personal wealth, at the expense of the poor, the vulnerable, the disadvantaged and the sick. With so many masks already worn within community then it is not so hard to understand why Society still suffers so much with the age-old afflictions and difficulties being brought forward by ultra-high risk behaviours of addiction, isolation and crime. When many have become People who have learned how to ignore the person instead of learning to ignore other Peoples shortcomings, who have learned how not to offend but never learned how not to be offended. Socrates once said something around the notion of an unexamined life being a life not worth living. Embracing the shame disarms the fear so we can live in the light of hope instead. Right needs wrong to justify its own existence and what many believe many will do. Not getting what we want is at the beginning of all frustration and anger. Self-righteousness is the root cause to all violence. We must be right before we will fight. So why go there, why go to right or wrong or even to best when there is always better available instead? Particularly when better makes all things new again and draws us nearer to perfection always improving on right, wrong or best. Education is better than force. Inspirational coaching is better than punishment because it brings the benefits of joy to our world instead of robbing us of our joy and smiles with more suffering and harm in the name of authorised punishment deploying a twisted form of justice to cover up its real name of retribution. When we fail to embrace our shame then we develop masks to cover it, still believing in a judgement day for others instead of remembering our own day of shame in the light of Truth.

Peace

Heaven's Name, Meaning, Will, and Glory.

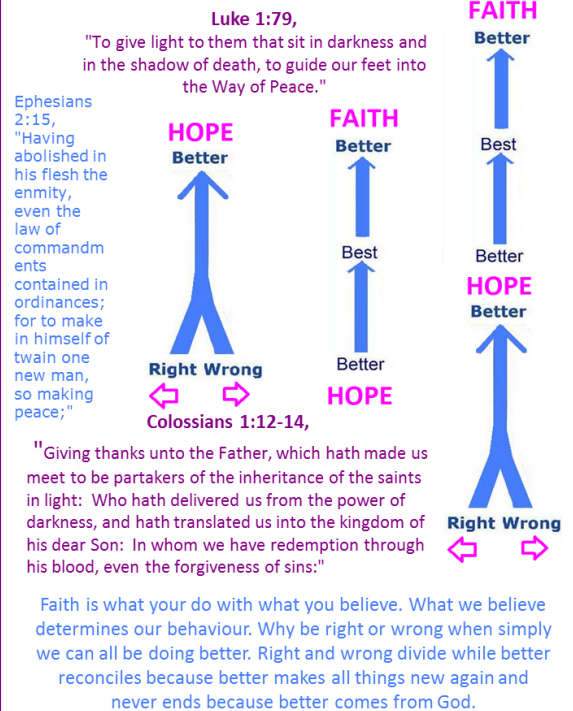

Caring for and respecting other people the way we ourselves would want other people respecting and caring for us achieves it. Grace and Truth.
The Greatest story of all.

the slate and its system away, there is no sin in Christ and certainly no need of slates.

The Peace of God is more than just a warm fuzzy feeling. Peace is The Name, Meaning, Will and Glory of Jesus' New Covenant Kingdom of God that resides within our own individual hearts, God becomes our conscience for us, when we ask. What an exciting time to be born again of The Kingdom of God, Jesus Christ our King, inviting all citizens to be holding His Bloodline and not rolling it back like false religion still does. Please in the name of Jesus Christ will you prayerfully consider the possibility of the possibility that our modern day Christian freedom has been taken captive of our own slate carrying traditions and carnal doctrines for acquiring an unattainable perfection based holiness, still having a righteousness founded on justice, and loving the creature that we Christians have created of ourselves more so than our own Christian Creator and all the while grouping together co-dependently reliant upon that old testament philosophy of "Learning obedience to law by the things that we suffer." In other words our way and favour or be punished or even excluded to the highway.

The law made nothing perfect but the bringing in of the better hope did, by the which, we draw nearer to God, says Scripture. So when this creature, the Pharisee's Harlot, turns to better then the veil that blinds its heart and mind to the true Grace of "It is Done." all is forgiven, the victory over evil is already won, will be taken away and finally His Bride will hold the line and will suffer violence no more and the violent will stop taking it by force and pour out His Blood-Covering all the more instead, particularly by wearing any undeserved consequences rather than becoming the consequence in the name of punishment and so-called justice. Leading by example and inspirational coaching replaces the need for punishment and access to Divine Spirit proves the point that since Christ, God now mentors not punishes and better for all if all Humanity would learn to do the same. We can seek Peace in all that we do and be doing peace in all that we seek because Peace is grace is doing better, establishing a better world for all.

We can learn how not to become offended equally as we can learn how not to offend and play our part in taking away the shortcomings of us all by grace rather than by shame.

Better thinking delivers more freedom by offering more choice and opportunity than the one-eyed we-only-are-right thinking attitudes because better for all combines together not divides apart. So when we see sin as sin instead of as Forgiven, unfortunately we give up Jesus' Bloodline, line of Grace, breaking the ranks and rolling back the Blood-Covering of Christ, in the name of justice not Christ. Sin hunting is the work of a most uninformed Religious or so-called Christian group's posse bound by their own so-called necessary burdens of qualification to sanctification, not of Christ. Acceptance of The Holy Spirit is also acceptance that God is a good God and that since Jesus, God now mentors, trains, inspirationally coaches Humanity not punish Humanity and Humanity would do well to take on the same, coming out of being the land of right and wrong and live in The Tree of Life, on The New Covenant Promised Land of Better, where all things are new again, out of fear and into Hope, where all is forgiven and the punishment, the shame, the condemnation and the suffering has all been rolled away, Hallelujah! John the Baptist washed slates clean offering new beginnings in turning over a new leaf. So does The Blood of Jesus Christ, but born again, New Covenant believers know that Jesus took

Hold the Line.

Learning obedience by the things that we suffer only brings more suffering into our world and is only violence breeding more violence. Why do that when our Mentoring/inspirational coaching can replace our punishment, we can take the consequence rather than be the consequence and we bring goodwill and the Joy of learning better by example into our world not more pain. Humanity has suffered enough. Better draws us nearer to perfection always improving on both right or wrong. There will always be rules and rules will always be broken, but what do we do when we encounter wrong, punish it or coach it? What is the better way forward, Peace or war? Right, Wrong or Better?

PEACE
No more punishment
No More war
Joy to our World

When He is Come – Peace.

The fact that Mankind's greatest expense is spent on weaponry and war while the ice-caps continue to melt due to the effects of Human pollution tells us just how far from Peace we have actually travelled. And the fact that there isn't a person on the planet who has never experienced punishment tells us all of the lousy job our so called Ministers of Reconciliation are actually doing and lazily been doing for well over 1500 years and still without 1 holy man to their credit. My People go astray because of a lack of knowledge says my LORD. We all need to come out of being the land of right and wrong and come into forgiveness and hold the Bloodline of Grace and be doing better, living in the new promised land of hope, of equal opportunity for all, the land of the living not the dead, and the judgement, punishment, shame and suffering will all go away too. The need for the masks and image will be taken away and we will be free of the self-righteous closed-minded once again, to be the People we were originally designed to be, ourselves, covered by the Blood of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, King of Peace.

Maybe you can help in both prayer and opinion, for me to gain a further understanding as to why I interpret scripture so differently to most, with your vast network of learned Friends and having much personal experience in serving People and having People serve you,

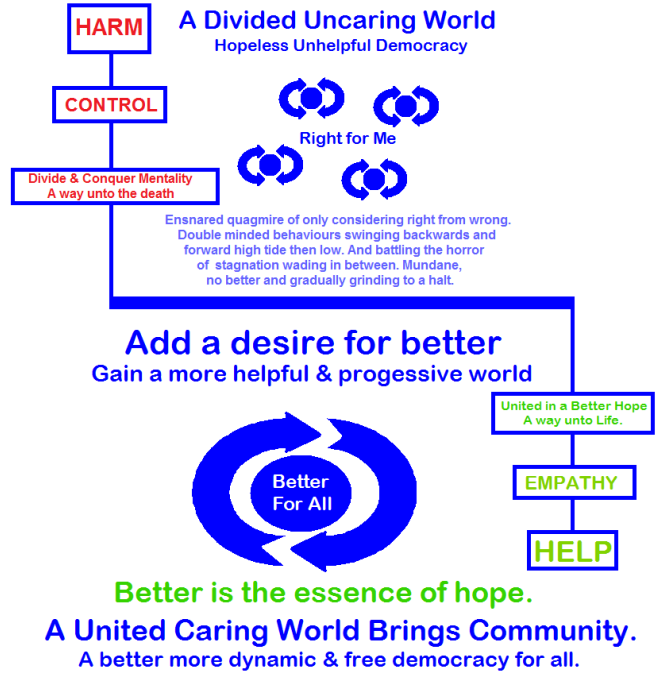

And so is it with any wonder that I would want the same for others, even if for no other reason than for my own personal protection and self-preservation, for when we all seek better than better is what we will all get, a better world for all always getting better.

Stopping slavery and ending the death penalty all started somewhere and I believe the same for stopping the bully, for Peace and an equal opportunity world for all, where mentoring and example replaces harmful punishment, and Humanity learns war no more overcoming violent behaviour within community, but not while institutional violence continues to breed more violence (punishment and suffering breeding more punishment and suffering) and the violent continue to interpret respect in terms of cruelty, vanity and honouring dominance and power over others, rather than through the prism of equality. Possibly a task force could be established to explore how and why we are still hanging out in the tree of knowledge of good and evil and what that means for all Citizens in this our present time and what might be done to turn us once again from black and white / good and bad / right and wrong, to doing better instead serving each other maintaining the Peace. Surely if Jesus was to do a re-enactment today 2000 years later He would be saying the very same things to the very same People which only makes me ask, so what has changed when Mankind has not left the old to enter into the new?

Maybe you can teach me a better way, maybe a little less scathing in presentation, maybe with a little more generosity and much more gentleness toward my fellow broken human beings. Love for you to comment in response, to hear from you specifically after your mindful or prayerful considerations and welcome you to offer your thoughts, your words, insights, suggestions or solution to any of the perspectives, assertions, conjecture and questions presented to you in this piece for Peace because I do have a passion in endeavouring to understand better the experiences of my own life in the world in which I live and so I'm praying that God may find the time for you to do so. Embracing the shame disarms any fear of it, and the need to cover it. Punishment brings suffering. Education brings Joy. Thanks again for your time, patience and understanding. Peace be with you.

Better Brings Together & Unites in Harmony.

your offering of valued prayer on my behalf and advancing your wise counsel would so help. I see a real need for a renewing, a reformation, a revival, reframing call it what you will, I see a need for a return to the sharing of the good news of Jesus' Kingdom of Peace and of the equal opportunity world for all that it offers to all, to combat the fighting, the suicide, the inequality and pollution of our planet. I remain convinced that Humanity is still hanging out in the wrong tree and doing so blinded by pride, causing Humanity to experience an enormous amount of discomfort and despair, even harm, death and war, just as my scripture suggestions throughout the entire book, in a book that some say is a manufacturer's manual, and so if we Homosapien Christian, can't even get past being encapsulated by the taste of an apple talked of in the first few chapters, how in the name of Peace will we ever manage an industry marketing the harvest of the fruitfulness of the last?

I believe in democratic law and order but the punitive side of the right / wrong system we operate within trickling down is just not working for our world, it is adding to Mankind's suffering and it is certainly and clearly not working for me either. Right and wrong continues to divide us, while better for all can and will continue to combine us People together, meeting in the new. Better makes all things new again. Better never ends and so I believe in a better hope because better bridges the great divide between right and wrong, meeting each other in a better new, so making peace.

In Humanity's Community of Peace

We All have a Right to Peace.

All can be Citizens of Peace.
The golden rule will help to build it.

Our Father, who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name,
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we would forgive those that would trespass against us and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the Power, the Glory and The Kingdom, forevermore and for Peace's sake, Amen.

When He is Come – Peace.

Peace is Heaven's Name Meaning, Will and Glory.
God's Holiness has been granted unto us all and that by God.

The Gospel of Peace.

Jesus is our Saviour King of Peace. Lord of all that be.

Mentoring replaced punishment.

Peace And Goodwill to All.

An Aussie Perspective.

The God of Peace has a Peace that is greater than any human peace.

The Peace of God surpasses all understanding. Violence is satanic and opposes Peace. Discrimination is of the devil and opposes Equality. While self-interest is an evil of greed and opposes Community. Learning how not to become offended equally as we learn how not to offend is learning war no more and helps in taking away the shortcomings of us all. Establishing that peace amongst men is more than possible, indeed already done living in hope more so and rather than standing in Judgement over right and wrong, for right and wrong divide while better reconciles, thus is to make in oneself of two one new person, so making peace. Mentoring replaces punishment leading by example. All have access because all can forgive as we ourselves have all already been forgiven, forgiven for not knowing what we do, for the Way of Peace we have not known, lost but now is found, Grace. And with this new found forgiveness comes the opportunity for all to do their best by seeking better and that resulting betterment, better for all by all, as all are one under Heaven as All are Children of The Most High God. Hallelujah! God is no respecter of position but more the respecter of Faith, the doing with what you believe, for what we believe determines our behaviour and what many believe many will do. We are not only personally responsible for the consequences of our own actions but also we are personally responsible for the beliefs that we hold that get us acting the way that we do. Peace is better than war. We will be eternally accountable for who or what we allow to sit on the diadem of our own conscience, individually and collectively in this our Free and Democratic world in which we now live served and serving the Golden Rule so well. Ask God to be your conscience for you, giving voice to God within your own brain, trusting more that eternally infinite knowing voice inside. God is a good God and Loves us all.

The Kingdom of Peace is within you.
